

A NEAR MISS IS A FREE LESSON;
NATIONAL PAEDIATRIC CANCER MORBIDITY & MORTALITY EVENT
FRIDAY 24 NOVEMBER 2017

LEWIS ROOM, HALLMARK HOTEL, 27 WASHINGTON STREET, GLASGOW

09.45	Registration and coffee/tea
10:00	Welcome and philosophy behind the day - Prof Hamish Wallace, Consultant Paediatric Oncologist, Royal Hospital for Sick Children, Edinburgh
10.15	Safety Checklist Presentation – Dr Tom Kelsey, Reader in Health Data Science University of St Andrews
10.45	Transferable learning from across the centres – chaired by Dr Kate Wheeler, Consultant Paediatric Oncologist at Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, Chair of the National Paediatric Autograft Panel, NHS England, a sub group of the Children's Cancer Clinical Reference Group, Chair of the Neuroblastoma sub group of the NCRI Children's Cancer and Leukaemia Clinical Study Group
11:30	Tea/Coffee break
11.45	Case studies: Presentation 1- Dr Roddy O’Kane, Consultant Neurosurgeon, NHS GG&C Presentation 2 – Dr Diana McIntosh, Consultant Paediatric Oncologist, NHS GG&C
12.45	Lunch
13:30	Case Studies (continued) Presentation 3 & 4 – Dr Mark Brougham, Consultant Paediatric Oncologist, NHS Lothian
14:15	Plenary session 1: Facilitating Improved Anticipatory Care - Dr Dermot Murphy, Consultant Paediatric Oncologist
14.45	Tea/Coffee break
15:00	Plenary session 2: Managing Clinical Risk in Paediatrics and Haematology / Oncology – Dr Eddie Doyle, Associate Medical Director and Consultant Paediatric Anaesthetist, NHS Lothian
15:45	Closing remarks – Dr Kate Wheeler and Prof Hamish Wallace
16:00	Finish